Madeline sought members approval to revert from potentially claiming Gift Aid ( as only 3 or 4 members eligible) the + side being we could charge visitors at the open meeting. Members approved and a £5 charge agreed.

Next meeting +

- Dec – Wreath making. Judith outlined how she had sourced the base straw wreathes, that will allow members to affix foliage so requested members bring along greenery. If anyone wants to bring a friend then £7 fee and let one of the committee know by early next week. Drinks & a some food provided
- Craft Club – Dorset buttons – Lesley showed an example and also suggested they could be embellishments on Wreathes + small embroidered xmas decortions
- Jan meeting is the Murder Mystery meeting. Judith reminded members of how this worked. Need at least 6 to commit to being character and roles assigned at the next meeting.

AOB

- Panto dates: 26th, 37th & 28th January

Lindy then welcomed Ian Everest who gave a talk on Newhave Fort. Highly informative and as with all Ian talks extremely well done
