

Rodmell and Southease WI Monthly Record

17,04.18

13 Members

3 Visitors (+ 1 Canine)

Lindy welcomed all

1. The record of the last meeting available

2. Birthdays

(Carol)

3. Matters arising from record

- Members were reminded that our one scheduled fund raiser was to be Teas in the village hall on Sunday 6th May 2 – 5pm. List circulated to try & avoid everyone making a particular type of cake, and volunteers requested to help on the afternoon.
- Madeline reported on attending the ESFWI AGM in Hastings – which was considered a good location and good speakers (Sam Taylor – Editor of The Lady and Tom Hart Dyke – head gardener at Lullingstone Castle., Kent. Madeline collected the certificate for 1st prize at the Autumn Show for her jam. Note it is the ESFWI Centenary in 2019.
- Rodmell & Southease AGM. Lindy asked members if any objection to this being moved from Oct to Sept '18 to accommodate the speaker who now unable to make the Sept date.

4. Correspondence

- Bulb Catalogue distributed and orders requested by next months meeting.

5. Finance.

Current account	£1121
Petty Cash	£ 15

6. 16 full time paid up members and 1 dual (+ 3 outstanding)

7. Pennies for Freindship collection re circulated and permission sought to 'top up' from current account.

8. Next meeting

- Resolution Meeting. Madeline outlined the process for new members. Joan Jones is our Links delegate.

AOB

- Joan thanked members for her cards.
- Ali informed members she was hosting an essential oils workshop on May 5th at Badgers Dene.
- Christine thanked those who came along and helped at the Jumble Sale

Lindy then introduced John Davey who gave an excellent talk on the 'Lost Industries of Lewes', which identified the key role of a tidal river (Ouse) that had direct influence on the past employment and trade in Lewes .