Equine Therapy as Alternative Education

- Does your child have learning difficulties?
- Is your child struggling to function and progress in mainstream education?
- Do you have a vulnerable or troubled teen / young adult?

We provide a safe, non-judgemental environment offering a creative, therapeutic way of engaging young people who are vulnerable, excluded from school or have special educational needs.

In a structured and safe, alternative teaching environment, we will engage them with learning horse care and forming connections, to give an outcome of:

- Strategies to cope with daily life challenges
- Growth in self-confidence and awareness
- Building healthy relationships and boundaries to aid social inclusion
- Emotional Intelligence and Well-being
- Better engagement and motivation
- Building new skills and knowledge
- Gaining hope, vision and courage to progress successfully in life

Scientific research proves that just being around horses and animals can bring about calmness and wellbeing. Outdoor learning and reconnection with nature develops emotional resilience and leads to and improved outcomes in all aspects of academic and social learning.

We offer:

- A Qualified Teacher
